RE: EDMOND BROWN V. HADDON TOWNSHIP, ET ALS.
Civil Action Number 1:18-cv-15122

Dear Magistrate Judge Donio:

As the Court's records will reflect, this office represents the defendants, Haddon Township and Police Officer Robert Mulhern. There presently is a settlement conference scheduled for Wednesday, September 22, 2021 at 10:30 a.m. It should be noted that the settlement conference was adjourned one other time based upon my office's request.

The purpose of this letter is to request another adjournment. It is acknowledged that I had previously requested an adjournment of the first scheduled settlement conference.

My office is short on coverage and I am scheduled for a deposition on Wednesday, September 22, 2021. The deposition has been rescheduled on numerous occasions. Furthermore, I recently discussed the matter with the client and an adjournment will allow the defendant to obtain authority so that the settlement conference would be worthwhile.

Plaintiff's counsel has graciously consented to this request. Moreover, both the undersigned and plaintiff's counsel believe the scheduling order should be amended to include extra time for the completion of the Pretrial Order and Conference.

Respectfully submitted,

MADDEN & MADDEN, P.A.
